

FUN BASEL Vol XVIII Speakers

Launchlabs Basel – 2. May 2019

Aurelie Litynski

Aurelie aspires to increase the awareness on happiness at work in companies and help leaders and employees being successful by creating more work-related happiness in their teams. She learnt about the topic of "happiness at work" from experts worldwide, became a Chief Happiness Officer in 2017 and created an approach, which tackles crucial topics such as behaviour, communication, empathy and trust within companies. She is originally from the south of France, married, mother of 2 and has been in Switzerland for more than 10 years after living and working in various positions in France, UK and Canada. Last year she founded the Meetup group "Happiness @ work - Zurich" where business professionals share ideas and experiences on how to improve their work environments.

Catherine Schopfer

Having a passion for healing, Catherine is a cancer survivor, life transformer, mindset coach, and speaks out of experience. Expert in resilience and using a systemic approach, she helps people around the world to rediscover their passions and connect with their purpose to thrive fully after the challenge of cancer. Before finding her true calling, Catherine trained as a food science engineer and worked in the corporate world for organisations such as Henkel and Luxair Group. Catherine lives with her partner, Danilo, in Zug, Switzerland and has two daughters. If cancer is a topic close to you, reach out, Catherine will listen, support and be there for you through this journey.
